The law of love

“Then he looked up at his disciples and said:

‘Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.

Blessed are you who are hungry now, for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.

Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude you, revile you, and defame you on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for surely your reward is great in heaven; for that is what their ancestors did to the prophets.”

– Luke 6:20 – 23

Annual Report

Catholic Charities
Diocese of Fort Wayne-South Bend

Dear Friends,

Here at Catholic Charities, The Beatitudes provide clear direction for the services we provide. To quote Catholic Charities USA, “The Beatitudes establish the perspective by which we organize and structure Catholic Charities: we are called to reflect the kingdom of God in our operations, policies, and actions.” This single objective sets us apart from other social-service organizations, and defines our purpose as well as our programming.

And so we must thank you for your support this year. Without your contributions, we would never be able to fulfill the clear and straightforward commands of Jesus to serve those around us in His name. With your help, we have been able to offer programs that fulfill Jesus’ instructions and—in many cases—serve populations that would otherwise go unreached in several counties across our diocese.

Of course, we know that not all are called to serve or work in these types of ministries. That’s why we’re here, to provide the vessel for living out the Gospel imperative to serve the poor, oppressed, vulnerable, and hungry. Catholic Charities provides the actual services, but we need our supporters to do their part through prayer, financial gifts, volunteer services, or becoming a goodwill ambassador for us.

Catholic Charities USA puts it this way: “Through The Beatitudes and the Parable of the Good Samaritan, Jesus teaches that responding to suffering people is not simply a matter of following prescribed laws and rules; it is about embracing the Law of Love.”

Please join us with your renewed support as we continue to live by this law of love in the coming year. And, again, many thanks for all your support this past year.

God bless.

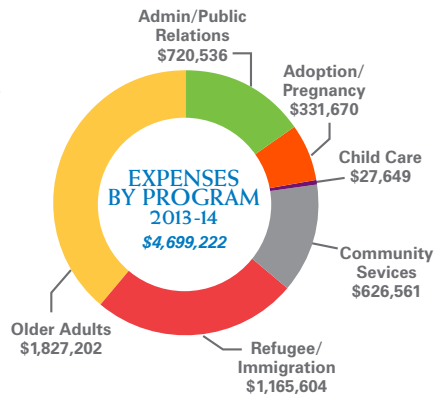

Sincerely,

Gloria Whitcraft
Executive Director

“With your help, we have been able to offer programs that fulfill Jesus’ instructions and—in many cases—serve populations that would otherwise go unreached in several counties across our diocese.”

PLEASE NOTE: During fiscal year 2014-2015, we are apportioning our various administrative costs to the actual programs they support, rather than assigning them to our executive-office cost center, which had been the practice heretofore. This new method will show that the majority of our administrative costs enable our direct service to Catholic Charities clients, whereas one could infer from the chart above that the agency spends a disproportionate number of dollars on general administration, which is not, and never has been, the case. Next year's report will reflect this new approach.

'It's a good thing to give'

"You are being enriched in every way for all generosity, which through us produces thanksgiving to God."

These words written by Paul the Apostle in 2 Corinthians 9:11 speak to the how our lives are enhanced by our generosity, and that's central to why Catholic Charities needs your help in bringing a measure of Christmas cheer to families in need. Please consider becoming a sponsor, whether as an individual, family, business, or other organization.

"Our Christmas Program is made possible by people with big hearts," says Lisa Young, Catholic Charities assistant director. "It doesn't take a lot to make a real difference at Christmas for these families. They really appreciate everything that's done for them."

Sponsors provide a variety of things: toys for the kids, clothing for adults and children, gift cards, and cash. Members of the Catholic Charities staff tell sponsors what their families desire, and many sponsors shop for the items themselves.

It's required that families in the Christmas Program be clients of Catholic Charities. In 2013, sponsors helped 27 families in the Fort Wayne area. In South Bend, sponsors assisted 55 families and 20 seniors.

"We've been very fortunate to have so many sponsors step forward, but we can always use more," says Barbara Burlingham, who leads the Christmas Program effort in South Bend.

"It's a good thing to give—to have a giving heart and compassion for those less fortunate," Lisa says. "And sponsoring a family in our Christmas Program aligns perfectly with Catholic Charities mission of 'serving those in need as Christ would have us do.'"

To be a sponsor in the Fort Wayne area, please contact Lisa at (260) 422-5625, ext. 283, or lyoung@ccfwsb.org, or Theresa McGuire at (260) 422-5625, ext. 283, or tmcguire@ccfwsb.org. In South Bend, contact Barbara at (574) 234-3111, ext. 31, or bburlingham@ccfwsb.org.

Many thanks to Peoples Federal Savings Bank Charitable Trust for its recent donation, enabling us to replace a commercial freezer that had stopped working at Catholic Charities' RSVP Community Center of Caring food pantry in Auburn.

"Several of the board members at People's Federal Savings Bank Charitable Trust are familiar with RSVP and the work that we do," says Terri Pfenning, RSVP volunteer coordinator, "including one board member who actually presented the idea of starting a food pantry at the community center in the first place."

Gloria Whitcraft, Catholic Charities executive director, agrees. "Our Auburn RSVP Community Center of Caring is such a lively place," she says. "We're so thankful for all of the community support we receive. This gift in particular will help us maintain services to so many in the community."

Maury Winkler, bank president, presents funds toward the purchase of a commercial freezer to Catholic Charities Executive Director, Gloria Whitcraft.

Classic Car Quilt fetches $4,100

RSVP's 29th Annual Classic Car Quilt was sold for $4,100 during the Worldwide Auction at the National Auto & Truck Museum, part of the Auburn Cord Duesenberg Festival in Auburn on August 30.

The winning bid was placed by Joyce and Larry Clairmont of Clairmont Collections in Chicago. The quilt will be displayed at Clairmont Collections, which features a large array of classic and vintage autos.

The quilt, titled "Duesy Drive-in," was created by RSVP quilters Louise Kessler, Shirley Votaw, Jan Hartman, Ann Kelham, Mary Lou Pfenning, Dorothy Lucas, Marsha Rosenbalm, Sue Teegardin, Diana Wiedenhoef, Shirley Johnson, and Patti Sheppard.
